

WALKING TOURS

Laneways of Melbourne Tour

Do you want to make the most of your visit to Melbourne and immerse yourself in the local culture? Are you already a local but you want to know more than most about your own city?

Use our extensive knowledge to ensure you don't walk past some of our best hidden laneways, shops or cafes. We will make sure that you know much more about Melbourne and its 176 year history.

This tour includes lunch and coffee at Caffé Mediterraneo or Jolimont Espresso and a chocolate tasting at Lindt Chocolat Café.

City Laneway Shopping Tour

Melbourne has many hidden shops in our famous laneways and alleys. With a pure focus on shopping, we will take you to shops often in the shadow of large department stores.

We won't bother you with any history here – you will be taken into hidden places often up or down stairs to discover that secret basement shop filled with amazing wares. Hidden laneway treasures await.

The tour usually visits around 20 venues and concludes with afternoon tea at Jolimont Espresso or Caffé Mediterraneo!

Art Deco Architecture Tour

One of the best things about Melbourne is in its diversity of attractions. Art Deco buildings are one such example and you will positively marvel at just how many there are!

Robin Grow, author of the book Melbourne Art Deco, has been walking the city for years, showing many people Melbourne's great interwar buildings so come and discover them with an expert.

The tour usually includes around 15 iconic buildings and concludes with coffee at Jolimont Espresso or Caffé Mediterraneo!

WALKING TOURS

Flinders St Station Tour

Melbourne's best known building turned 101 this year. What better way to learn more about our station than by talking a walking tour.

Jenny Davies, author of the book Beyond the Façade: Flinders Street, more than just a railway station, invites you to join us for a wander around one of the busiest stations in the world.

Discover some of the thousands of stories and people connected with the social, commercial and architectural history of this grand building. After years of intensive research, Jenny has uncovered many of the little known treasures related to the station.
